

WEEKLY REPUBLICAN—1907
DAILY PUBLIC LEDGER—1909

MAYSVILLE, KENTUCKY, SATURDAY, JANUARY 31, 1914.

ONE COPY—ONE CENT.

Reciprocity.
If woman with her wicked wiles Secures the vote she cannot lack,
We men must urge a change in styles
To make her do us up the back.
—Judge.

C. Calvert Early went over to Brooksville yesterday to attend a social dance.

The Board of Education met last evening in regular session. The regular order of business was disposed of as hurriedly as possible in order to give the Board a chance to hear Judge Al-den's great lecture. Nothing of special interest took place. The reports showed the schools to be in splendid condition. Superintendent Caplinger is much encouraged at the progress being made and expects the second semester to show better results than the first has shown.

MRS. J. HARVEY RICE ILL.

Mrs. Judith A. Rice, widow of the late J. Harvey Rice, and mother of County Judge Rice and Mr. Jeff Rice, is seriously ill at her home in Forest avenue.

LET UNCLE SAM GIVE YOU THE FACTS

Government reports show the steady output of coal during the last few years has made the dealers push for wider markets. We are going to get more value for your money by giving you a greater value for your money.
You will never get out of debt unless you buy wisely.

JUDGE NEWELL DESIGNATED TO PRESIDE IN ROWAN COUNTY.

Frankfort, Ky., January 30.—Governor McCreary today designated Judge C. D. Newell to preside over the Rowan circuit court in cases in which Judge William Young is counsel.

HEAR GOV. PATTERSON MONDAY NIGHT.

Be sure to hear Ex-Governor Patterson lecture on "The Liquor Question" at the Baptist Church, Maysville, next Monday night, February 2nd, at 7 o'clock. It is a rare opportunity to hear a man of national reputation as a clear thinker and a brilliant orator discuss the liveliest question of the hour.
Don't fail to hear him, or you will regret it. No charges for the lecture.
Country people come and hear him.
Baptist Church, Maysville, Monday night, February 2nd, at 7 o'clock.

EVERYTHING STOPPED

Electrical. This Morning When Pierce
Wind Blew Down Electric Light Pole In Sixth Ward.

This morning about 8:30 o'clock, when everything in The Public Ledger plant was humming, old Boreas went on a tear and blew a big electric light pole down near the home of Mr. James H. Hall, in East Second street, Sixth Ward, which wrecked all the telephones and electric wires from that point to Hutchinson's store and paralyzed the street railway current.

President Cochran at once put a large force of men at work repairing the damage and by 9:30 the wheels were going again.
